

St. Boniface Year in Review – 2011

January – Actors of all ages – those young and young in heart – helped retell the familiar story of Jesus’ birth during the Epiphany pageant.

April – More drama as actors and audience tried to figure out who killed Dusty Jones during St. Boniface’s first mystery dinner theater. Good food and good fun with a successful raffle to boot. Also in April, we hold an interfaith Seder meal with members of Beth El Ner Tamid Synagogue.

June – Bishop Steven Miller comes to confirm and receive parishioners from St. Boniface and St. Aidan’s in Hartford.

Summer – A summer of celebration with a variety of services designed to explore our Episcopal history and traditions. There were youth services with teenage preachers, music in many styles from Taize to Celtic, and historic liturgies from the 1928 and 1872 prayers books. We even celebrated nature outside!

September – Church school year kickoff and car wash. Live music, brats, suds and fun! Also in September, a new outreach opportunity starts with a partnership between Barton Elementary School in Milwaukee and St. Boniface.

November – The second annual St. Boniface book sale extends to 3 days and fills the old nave with piles and piles of books! Later that month, the fabulous Beekman Boys take St. Boniface by storm as featured guests at a fundraising dinner and book signing.

December – Advent was filled with activity from the White Elephant party to the Senior Luncheon. Christmas was celebrated with a joyful 4:30 Christmas Eve service and a lovely 10:30 p.m. Eucharist.
